

This proof only works for Reuleaux polygons with an odd number of sides, because otherwise the point C does not (quite) lie on the circle.